BOYS KEEP DROWNING OF PLAYMATE SECRET

(By International News Service)
LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Sept. 6.—The parents of their playmate, John Henry, twelve years old, had been drowned in a mud hole, several boy friends invented a story about his being kidnapped by a negro, who escaped on a train. John's brother, Henry, was one of the group. The boy was not recovered for over twenty-four hours. It was said that John jumped into the hole and evidently was seized with a cramp. The other boys, frightened by what happened, hid his clothes and went elsewhere to play. Finally the next evening one of the little boys told what had happened, and railroad agent, police, station agents and sheriffs hunted their secret, for kidnappers and found the body.

PET DOG GRIEVES FOR MASTER'S VACATION CUT

(By International News Service)
BURLINGTON, N. J.—To save the life of a pet dog, apparently was grieving back to death over his absence, the Rev. Norman B. McConnell, pastor of the Riverside, N. J., Methodist church, has returned from his vacation.

For two weeks since the day the clergyman left for a summer rest, the dog refused to eat, and a veterinarian decided the only trouble with the animal was grief.

Efforts to tempt the dog with choice morsels of meat failed, and the animal refused to leave its owner's doorstep. A friend wrote to the pastor, and he came home at once. The hound feebly expressed its delight when he appeared, and broke its long fast when he offered it food.

Ostrich feathers valued at $250,000 were imported into the United States in the last 12 months.

LORD MAYOR IS FAST WEAKENING

Tragic Little Act Enacted Daily as Jailor Brings Tray of Food

LONDON, Sept. 6.—(By The Associated Press.)—Each day, as the fast of Lord Mayor MacSwiney in Brixton prison progresses, there is staged by the hospital of the dining room a tragic little act, which was disclosed to The Associated Press today by Father Dominic, Mayor MacSwiney's private chaplain.

Every morning food in some form or another is brought in by the prison authorities and offered to the starving prisoner in the hope that his all-moment uncontrollable craving will master him and that he will be tempted to eat. Every morning there is the same end to the act—MacSwiney, who is too weak to utter a spoken refusal, crushes his desire and turns his head away. So it has gone on until the twenty-fifth day of his hunger strike has been reached.

There have been many rumors that MacSwiney was being given assistance in drinking water or otherwise. This is denied by relatives and friends, and The Associated Press was further informed that the prison authorities have not given the lord mayor any food in this manner. Father Dominic also denied that the prisoner was being fed, and added:

"Although some people say that the desire for food disappears after a few days' abstinence, it is not so in Mayor MacSwiney's case. He is still hungry, but refuses to take anything although it is brought in to him regularly."

The lord mayor looked pale, drawn and haggard this morning when I administered the usual sacrament, and the local rumor that he received the last sacrament today is not true. MacSwiney has intervals of dizziness and is only able to speak in short gasps, owing to difficulty in breathing and any attempt at continual conversation is impossible."

Lord Mayor MacSwiney is in the same room as was occupied by Sir Roger Casement before the latter was transferred to the Tower. It is a large, airy dormitory with seven beds and there is a day and night nurse in attendance. The main entrance to the prison is guarded by several police who refuse to admit any but relatives of the inmates.

Many visitors were turned away today. But beyond those, the police and the coming and going of Mayor MacSwiney's relatives there is nothing to indicate the battle of wills going on behind the high walls of the jail, the outcome of which may have a far reaching effect.

BRITISH PROTEST TAX ON HONOLULU VISITORS

HONOLULU, T. H., Aug. 17.—(Correspondence.)—A number of British subjects, including the mayor of a New Zealand city and a major in the British army, whose passports had not been viced by American consuls, were refused permission to land and spend the day in Honolulu recently while the steamer Tahiti was loading and unloading on her way from Sydney, Australia, to Vancouver, B. C.

The Britishers were detained aboard the Tahiti at the order of R. L. Halsey, immigration inspector here. Halsey said he had his instructions from Secretary of State Cobby, adding that he had received a cablegram to enforce the regulations strictly with regard to the Tahiti.

For visiting a passport the American consuls in Australia charge a fee of $10, said Tahiti passengers who had conformed with the demand of the United States government.

Officials of the chamber of commerce took up the matter with the immigration officials here, but could obtain no relaxing of the rule, and an appeal has been sent to Washington to suspend the regulation which charges a through passenger of foreign birth $10 for the privilege of seeing Honolulu.

At a recent meeting of the village board Miss Randall was accused by Mrs. G. S. Hallard, wife of a local physician, with undermining her domestic felicity.

Clandestine meetings with her husband are charged against Miss Randall by the doctor's wife.

COX FOR LABOR, SAYS GOMPERS

Labor Day Parade Broken Up By Dispute of Union Bandmen

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 6.—In a Labor Day speech here Samuel Gompers championed the candidacy of Governor Cox for president. He said Governor Cox in congress had voted favorably on all legislation "in the interests of the people," and had lent his influence in passage of all constructive legislation as governor of Ohio.

Senator Harding was characterized as a "nice respectable gentleman" by Mr. Gompers. "But what else?" he asked. "The most conspicuous thing about Harding," he continued, "has been his inactivity in everything constructive and his activity in everything reactionary."

Gompers defended the league of nations and characterized congress as "a congress of negation."

The Esch-Cummings act, he declared, would "create industrial slavery."

The central division naval band, here on a recruiting campaign, was the cause of a controversy in this morning's parade.

It was said at the local recruiting office, arrangements had been made for the band to lead the carpenters. Local bandmen wouldn't march, they said if the naval bandmen were permitted. Gompers ruled that the jacks could bring up the rear.

Naval Bandmaster Moravcs refused to take part, regarding the ruling as humiliating. He was upheld by the carpenters, who also refused to participate.
